

EMPHASIS: Anthropology
DEGREE: Associate in Arts

Purpose:

The Associate of Arts degree with an emphasis in anthropology is for students wishing to transfer to a four-year college or university. A student acquiring the Associate in Arts degree in anthropology will achieve an understanding of the diversity of humans and human cultures past and present around our globe.

While preparing the student for further study and eventual employment in the field of anthropology, this educational plan also is relevant for students preparing for a broad range of jobs in both government and international agencies that focus on cross-cultural issues and involve working with people from different cultural backgrounds. These jobs, in addition to work in international and government agencies, might include working in agricultural development and educational reform or as a consultant, planner, market analyst, survey researcher, forensic scientist, or refugee coordinator.

For additional information concerning the anthropology major feel free to consult the anthropology faculty advisor.

Program Outcomes:

Please refer to the Distribution Requirements and their criteria listed in the Centralia College catalog.

Learning Themes:

General education outcomes at Centralia College help students, faculty, and the general public identify learning expected when a student has completed a degree or program. The administration, faculty, and staff have agreed upon the following five Learning Themes which students can expect to encounter in their courses by the completion of any degree.

Reasoning:

The ability to extract information from data, develop ideas and solutions, establish logical progression in thinking, and problem solve using such procedures as literary analysis or the scientific methods.

Written, Oral and Visual Communication:

The ability to make oneself understood in public, interpersonal, professional, artistic, and technical arenas.

Exploration-Self and Others:

An awareness of the values, beliefs, customs, and contributions of persons from one's own and other traditions, ethnicities, classes, and genders.

Resourcefulness:

The ability to adapt to change, such as technological innovations or environmental conditions.

Responsibility:

The ability to be accountable to self, society, and the natural world.
