Cambodia
25 DAYS
JUNE 24 TO JULY 18, 2014

EXPERIENCE A ONCE-IN-A-LIFETIME STUDY AND TRAVEL OPPORTUNITY

- Marvel at the monumental temple complex of Angkor Wat
- Immerse yourself in Khmer culture, both present and past
- Absorb the spirituality of Khmer temples draped in riotous jungle flora
- Cruise on the Mekong River with rare freshwater Irawaddy dolphins
- Wake up in your hammock to the eerie calls of gibbons in remote Virachey National Park
- Barter for your personal krama (silk scarf) in a local market
- Bunk overnight in a highland Bunong village on the borderlands with Vietnam
- Sit astride your elephant on an excursion in Mondulkiri Protected Forest
- Snorkel with colorful coral reef fish in the Gulf of Thailand

Cost: $2,975

Includes:
- International airfare
- Most ground and water transport
- Accommodations
- Some meals
- Site and excursion fees
- Does not include College course tuition
- Costs and/or itinerary may be revised due to changing rates, currency fluctuations and climatic conditions.

For more information contact:
Dr. Greg van Alstyne:
360.736.9391, ext. 552
or gvanalstyne@centralia.edu

Dr. Steve Norton:
360.736.9391, ext. 261
or snorton@centralia.edu