

2017-2018 Petition for Independent Status

Financial aid regulations emphasize that parent(s) have the primary responsibility for meeting the educational costs of students. If you are considered a dependent student according to the financial aid definition (see below), your aid eligibility is determined by using parent income and asset information in addition to your information. Dependent students are required by law to provide parental information and signatures to be considered for financial aid.

If your answer to all of the following questions is NO then you are considered dependent for financial aid purposes.

1. Were you born BEFORE January 1, 1994?
2. Are you married?
3. Are you or will you be working on a master's or doctorate program in the 2017-2018 academic year?
4. Are you currently serving on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces for purposes other than training?
5. Are you a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces?
6. Do you have legal dependents or children for whom you support at least 50%?
7. When you were age 13 or older, were both your parents deceased, were you in foster care or were you a dependent/ward of the court?
8. Are you an emancipated minor as determined by a court in your state of legal residence?
9. Are you in legal guardianship as determined by a court in your state of legal residence?
10. At any time on or after July 1, 2016, did your high school or school district homeless liaison determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless?
11. At any time on or after July 1, 2016, did the director of an emergency shelter program, funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless?
12. At any time on or after July 1, 2016, did the director of a runaway or homeless youth basic center or transitional living program determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were self-supporting and at risk of being homeless?

Occasionally, due to extraordinary circumstances, students cannot obtain parental information. If you cannot provide parental information for an unusual reason, you may petition for a waiver of federal regulations requiring parental information. Parents' out of state residency or unwillingness to provide information as well as a student being self supporting are not a reason to petition for independent status.

Students must document that there are compelling reasons in order for a petition for independent status to be approved. For the purpose of overriding dependent student status, extraordinary circumstances will include, but are not limited to, physical, mental or sexual abuse from the parents to the student, whereby student contact with parent(s) would endanger his/her well being.
