

Audition Announcement

Fire Mountain Arts Council Roxy Players with Centralia College East presents -

Peril of the Plains (and other foolery)

What?

A melodrama by D. Chapelle. In "Peril of the Plains" the evil and greedy Medusa Dunit has taken over the sleepy little town of Critter Crossing with the help of weak-willed Judge Wally Wessell and nasty Sheriff Black Burt Bushwacker. Who will step forward to help plucky Penelope Fortune save Critter Crossing's Orphan School and Old Folks Home from these evil villains?

The second act includes comedy sketches, music and dance. Actors participate in vaudeville-style sketches according to casting. Participants are invited to create original sketches acts (subject to approval).

When?

Wednesday, March 7, 6:30pm

Where?

Roxy Theater (233 W. Main, Morton)

Cast includes:

One young woman, two women (any age), one young man, two men (any age), plus a variety of actors, musicians, singers and dancers for the second act

Audition details:

Show up ready to read lines. Actors can come with prepared comedy sketches or monologues. Musicians and dancers – come with a prepared act and accompaniment. Contact directors if you need to audition by appointment.

Rehearsals & Performances: To be determined by production team (three evenings/week)

- Kick-off rehearsal is March 14, 6pm
- Dress rehearsal is May 3
- Performances:

May 5 & 6	Packwood Mountain Festival
July 8 & 22	Roxy Theater, Morton
October 7	Onalaska Apple Harvest Festival

Participants may register for college credit (DRMA 100 for 3 credits, or DRMA 115 for 5 credits).

For more information:

- ❖ Fred Schwindt, Artistic Director and CCEast Instructor: 496-5599 (sunrisefarms@yahoo.com)
- ❖ Michel Stickland, Assistant Director: 496-8387 (islandiafarm@gmail.com)
- ❖ Jessica Scogin, Coordinator: 509-528-6809 (jessica_scogin@hotmail.com)
- ❖ April Doolittle, Co-Coordinator: 496-5599 (sunrise@lewiscounty.com)

