

Winter 2009—Correspondence

Infant & Toddler Caregiving

6399 EDEC 173X (3)

Strategies to create safe, nurturing, predictable and culturally responsive environments to support social, emotional, physical and intellectual development in the earliest years. Emphasis on the emerging language of the young child, fostering secure adult-child relationships and the importance of

Methods & Curriculum Development for Care of School Age Children

6400 EDEC 174X (3)

Meeting the developmental needs of the older children before and after school. Emphasis will be placed on developmentally appropriate environment, curriculum and activities.

Play & the Young Child

6402 EDEC 201X (3)

An examination of the educational function of and methods to incorporate play into early childhood curriculum. An in-depth study of the nature and role of play in the cognitive, social, emotional, and physical development of the child.

CENTRALIA
COLLEGE

register soon cconline.centralia.edu

Questions?

Email our eLearning Program Coordinator

Eric Richardson at

eLearning@centralia.edu