

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT:
Lori Everhart
(877) 502-2233

CENTRALIA COLLEGE RECEIVES OUTSTANDING INSTITUTIONAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

FORT COLLINS, CO – Centralia College was awarded the Outstanding Institutional Achievement Award by the Association of Collegiate Conference and Events Directors-International (ACCED-I) at the ACCED-I 34th Annual Conference on March 25, 2014 in New Orleans, LA. This award recognizes a significant achievement by an institution in the conference and events field. It may be based upon a single program or event, or a long-term development that represents an outstanding milestone in conference and events management. The achievement must demonstrate a complete campus-wide effort.

The award recognizes the successful coordination of Centralia College as the midpoint in for the Seattle to Portland Bicycle Classic, a 200-mile bike ride down the I-5 corridor starting in Seattle WA and ending in Portland, OR. The collaboration with other departments on campus represents a long-term process that represents an outstanding milestone in event management.

ABOUT ACCED-I

The Association of Collegiate Conference and Events Directors-International was founded in 1980 and currently has a membership of over 1,500 professionals at educational institutions in North America, South America, United Kingdom and the Middle East. ACCED-I is the only independent educational association dedicated to professional growth and development in the collegiate conference and events profession. For further information on the Association, contact ACCED-I at (877) 502-2233 or browse ACCED-I's website at www.acced-i.org.

###