

4.035 ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF CENTRALIA COLLEGE

POLICY:

All currently enrolled students who pay service and activities fees are members of the official student organization of Associated Students of Centralia College (ASCC). The ASCC is recognized by the college and the board of trustees as the official student organization representing students at Centralia College. The director of student programs has administrative responsibility for the associated students organization.

PRACTICE:

The ASCC Student Government is the governing body of the Associated Students and operates within the guidelines of its constitution and by-laws. Students have the opportunity to participate in the Student Government or its various committees. Students appointed by the ASCC Student Government also serve on a number of college-wide committees and councils. The primary purpose or goal of the ASCC Student Government is to participate in the college's decision and governing processes. Information concerning student elections and appointments to the Student Government and its committees can be obtained from the Student Programs Office.
