

4.050 CHALLENGING COURSES/CREDIT BY EXAM

POLICY:

A student may challenge a course (or courses) and receive credit for the course(s).

PROCEDURE:

These are the two methods:

- A. The student may earn credit upon successful completion of an approved examination in certain subject areas. No more than 45 credits may be earned by examination. Any student interested in earning credit by this method should contact the Instruction Office.
- B. Centralia College students or potential students with CLEP scores at or above the 35th percentile should contact the Admissions and Records Office for a determination of credits to be awarded.
