

4.165 STUDENT RIGHT-TO-KNOW ACT

The Student Right-to-Know Act requires schools to disclose information about graduation rates to current and prospective students and the public. Schools participating in any SFA Program must disclose completion or graduation rates, and transfer-out rates for the general student body. In addition, the regulations also require schools that participate in a SFA Program and offer athletically related student aid to provide information on completion rates, transfer-out rates and other consumer information to potential student-athletes, their parents, high school coaches, and guidance counselors.
