Experience It! Malta

Malta may be small in size – but that's where its minuteness stops. Malta is south of Sicily, but is only 1% of the size of the well-known Italian island. Despite its initial appearance, the country is actually made up of a set of islands, all close together. This coastal paradise preserves endless layers of history – Malta once served as the home of Neolithic farmers, it holds age-old foundations from the Middle Ages, it served as the battleground for key fights of the Knights of Malta, and the island also played a strategic role for the Allies in WWII as a base. Malta has been inhabited since 5,000 BC, and this dynamic history is woven into its modern culture. Today, you can explore this intriguing past as well as soak up the sunshine on this relaxing Mediterranean getaway.

PLEASE NOTE:

The overall activity level of this tour is a level 3. This means you're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. In particular, you should expect large crowds in Valletta and Taormina. Both visits there require the ability to walk a minimum of 1.5 miles over cobblestoned streets with steep inclines and stairs with no handrails. The cities of Mdina, Ragusa, Modica, Scicli and Siracusa present similar conditions. Agility is required to board the local boats and ferries used in Malta as well as boarding the off-road vehicles used for the Mount Etna excursion. The Mount Etna excursion includes an ascent to 2000 meters/6,500 feet above sea level. For your comfort, we recommend bringing comfortable walking shoes. Foreign countries do not have to comply with the ADA rules. Due to the nature of this itinerary, the destinations visited and local conditions, this trip cannot accommodate for individuals who use wheelchairs or walkers and you therefore should consider an alternate program with us. Our Client Care Agents can provide additional information or assistance to help you determine the perfect trip for you.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

The days and order of sightseeing may change to best utilize your time on tour.

Most shops and businesses in Malta and Italy are closed on Sundays and on observances of national, local, or religious holidays.

Single accommodations are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Single rate subject to change based on availability.

*Traditional Dghajsa boats are small, each one seating approximately 5-7 people. Sailing is weather dependent and may be postponed or cancelled in case of adverse weather or sea conditions. Local ferries to Sliema and Gozo are also weather and sea dependent and may be cancelled or postponed as required. The isle of Gozo can only be reached by ferry which may result in a day swap or a cancellation of the optional tour.

Travelers are responsible for handling their own luggage when getting on and off the ferry to Sicily. The distance you need to cover carrying your luggage may range between 100 and 200 yards, and there are no luggage trolleys available in the ports.

Depending on the ferry schedule to Sicily, you may depart your hotel as early as 4:00 a.m. Due to the early departure time, breakfast will not be available at the hotel this morning. A cafeteria is available aboard the ferry.

Upon arrival in Sicily you will stop for a continental breakfast at a local cafe. In the case of adverse sea conditions, the ferry to Sicily may be delayed or cancelled resulting in partial reduction of your time on the island. In case of this event, there will be a replacement accommodation arranged and a comparable program on Malta.

To complete your tour, we include roundtrip airport-to-hotel transfers when purchasing our airfare with your tour. If you have arranged for your own air, we are pleased to provide you the option of purchasing these transfers. Please note that all transfers will leave at pre-scheduled times.

For air-inclusive reservations, the name provided at time of booking must match your government-issued ID that will be used during travel. Name changes are subject to penalties.

Our air travelers will depart from Catania airport. All of our return transfers will depart from Taormina to Catania airport.

Please be advised many airlines do not provide advance seat assignments until check-in at the airport. Advance seating will be subject to the airline's terms and conditions.
